WELCOME TO THE PROGRAM!

GUIDELINES:

The Puyallup Tribe Subsidized Child Care Program assists with childcare costs to approved providers for qualified Native American Families. This program is federally funded and prioritizes services for low to moderate income families.

All payments for child care services are paid directly to the childcare provider, less a co-payment due to the provider from the approved family. Co- payments are based on a sliding fee scale. All income paid from this program is taxable, and providers will receive a 1099 tax form at the end of each year on the program.

DISQUALIFYING CRIMES:

Child care staff members (Providers) cannot be employed by a child care provider (Grandview Early Learning Center-GELC) receiving CCDF subsidy funds if they refuse a background check, make materially false statements in connection with the background check, or are registered or required to be registered on the state or National Sex Offender Registry. Potential providers cannot be employed by a provider receiving CCDF funds if they have been convicted of: a felony consisting of murder, child abuse or neglect, crimes against children, spousal abuse, crimes involving rape or sexual assault, kidnapping, arson, physical assault or battery, or a drug related offense committed during the preceding 5 years; a violent misdemeanor committed as an adult against a child, including the following crimes—child abuse, child endangerment, or sexual assault; or a misdemeanor involving child pornography. In addition to the above, further disqualifying crimes are: A violation of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act of the Puyallup Tribal Code within the last five years, unlawfully manufacturing, delivering or possessing a controlled substance with intent to deliver, or unlawfully using a building for drug purposes, a series of misdemeanor convictions within the past five years taking in to account the seriousness of the offenses, animal cruelty and weapons violations unrelated to hunting.

PAYMENT PROCESS:

This program pays providers monthly after services are provided. Timesheets are due on the first of each month following the month of services. For example, May's timesheet should be turned in on June 1 for services completed for May. Timesheets must be signed each month by both the parent and the provider. Turn your timesheets in by scanning or taking a photo of them and emailing to GELC.Subsidy@PuyallupTribe-nsn.gov.

Once the timesheet is received, it is calculated and entered into our payment system. It is then sent to the Director of the program, Administration and finally Accounting. All of these departments must sign off on the check request before it goes to Accounting for final processing. With all of those departments involved in the approval process, the Accounting office is asking for a two-week turnaround to receive direct deposit.

CHILDCARE PAYMENTS ARE TAXABLE INCOME

Please be advised that any money paid to you by the Puyallup Tribe of Indians for childcare services is taxable income. You will receive a tax form called a 1099 at the end of the year.

Upon signing below, I understand that all income received by me from the Puyallup Tribe of Indians for childcare services over the amount of $600 is taxable income and may need to be reported by me to the Internal Revenue Service when I do my personal yearly taxes.

	7 List account number(s) here (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below); and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions for Part II, later.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
 - Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
 - Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
 - Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
 - Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
 - Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
 - Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
 - Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)
- Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.
- If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.*
