

TO: All Native American artists from the Puyallup Tribe and Puget Sound area tribes

FROM: Puyallup Tribe of Indians, Design and Construction Management

SUBJECT: "Call to Artists" workshop for the Puyallup Tribe of Indians New Elders Facility

DATE: Thursday, February 19, 2009 at 1:30 pm

LOCATION: Puyallup Tribe of Indians, Administration Building
3009 E. Portland Ave., Tacoma, WA 98404

If you are Native American artist from the Puyallup Tribe or from the Puget Sound area Tribes, interested in creating and submitting artwork or artworks for the Puyallup Tribe of Indians new Elders Facility, you are invited to participate in our "Call to Artist" workshop. The Puyallup Tribe of Indians, in coordination with the Design and Construction Management Team, is seeking artist to provide Native American art inspired by Coast Salish and art that creates a sense of place that is specific to the Pacific Northwest. Artwork will be purchased and will be owned by Puyallup Tribe.

- Artists must be 18 years or older
- Artists must have proof of Washington State residency, Puyallup Tribal Membership, or other Tribal Membership within the Puget Sound area

Project background, description, and guidelines will be provided at the workshop.

For questions, contact:

Debbie Sharp
Puyallup Tribe of Indians, Project Coordinator
(253) 680-5774

Marjorie Basballe
Puyallup Tribe of Indians, Project Coordinator
(253) 680-5772

